Who sits where in a courtroom?

Bailiff

They keep the courtroom safe and make sure everyone follows the rules.

Judge

They are in charge of the courtroom and ensure the trial is fair.

Court Reporter

They write down everything people say during the trial.

Jury

The jury is a group of people from the community who listen to all the evidence.

After hearing both sides, they decide if the person on trial is guilty or not, based only on the facts and the law.

Witness

A witness tells the court what they saw or know about the case.

They promise to tell the truth so the judge and jury can understand what really happened.

Defendant

This is a lawyer who helps the person accused of a crime.

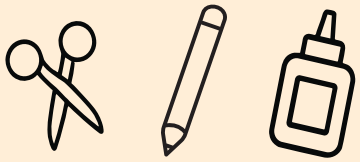
Prosecutor

They are lawyers who try to show that someone broke the law.

For more information, visit incacs.org/court/

Indiana Chapter of National Children's Alliance

You're going to need



Scissors Pencil Glue

Instructions

1. Cut out each figure
2. Match them to where they belong on the other page
3. Glue each piece down
4. Write each figure's name on the dashed line

Who sits where in a courtroom?

Glue here

I am in charge of the courtroom.

Glue here

I keep the courtroom safe.

Glue here

I write down what's said.

Glue here

We listen to the evidence.

Then we decide if the person on trial is guilty or not.

Glue here

I tell the court what I saw and know.

Glue here

I help the person on trial.

Glue here

I show someone broke the law.

Once you cut out each figure on the other page, match them to these decriptions.

Then, glue them where they belong.

For more information, visit incacs.org/court/

Indiana Chapter of National Children's Alliance